

Life Sunday ~ 2008

January 22nd marks the 35th sad and troubling anniversary of Roe Vs Wade.

While this is certainly not a day to celebrate, it does serve as a good reminder for God's children to search the Scriptures. God's word has much to say about the gift and protection of life and when life begins.

*For You formed my inward parts;
You covered me in my mother's womb.
I will praise You,
for I am fearfully and wonderfully made;
Marvelous are Your works,
And that my soul knows very well.
My frame was not hidden from You,
When I was made in secret,
And skillfully wrought in the lowest parts of the earth.
Your eyes saw my substance, being yet unformed.
And in Your book they all were written,
The days fashioned for me,
When as yet there were none of them.*

Psalm 139:13-16

This anniversary should also remind us of the horror and injustice that has taken place in our nation these past thirty-five years as over 49 million (approx. 16 % of the current population) babies have been legally killed in our nation since 1973. Approximately 1.2 million babies were killed in 2007.

This sad anniversary should also serve to encourage all of us as God's children to speak up for the unborn in whatever legal means possible

*Open your mouth for the speechless,
In the cause of all who are appointed to die.*

Proverbs 31:8.
